New York, August 1.—Long be-fore to o'clock this morning, the hour at which Mr. Nathan's funeral was to be held, the neighborhood of his late residence, No. 12 West Twenty-third street, was thronged with a dense mass of human beings. The crowd numbered over 5000, all intently watching for the funeral procession to form. The friends of the family entered the house. The members of the Stock Exchange, directors of Mt. Sinai Hospital, several societies, judges and prominent citizens attended the funeral. At about 11 o'clock the procession formed and proceeded to Evergreen Cemetery, Ridgewood Park. Two sons of the deceased had to be supported down the steps of the house to the carriage. Both were weeping violently and he seemed completely overcome with emotion. The hearse was preceded by thirty men, marching in funeral procession. After them came fifty boys of the Jewish Orphanrag in funeral procession. After them came fifty boys of the Jewish Orphanage, then sixty carriages, the first occupied by two cores.

We, the un'ersigned before we placed ourselvez under D. Jerome Pancost's trea ment for the cure of Calar hend affections of the Lungs, had fully some to the conclusion that there was no remedy or mode of medication for the care of these complaints, in which we could place any resembles around of for the care of these complaints in which we could place any reasonable amount of confiden e, we had so long been drought to disaprointment; and we are tolly confident this opinion is large y shared in by mearly every person suffering from these dangerous classes of maladies.

Having been subject to the most amount of years before we began Dr. Pancouta frost ment, notwithstanding we made use of everything we had heard recommended, as well as had the advice and affection of some of the most eminent physicians but well as had the advice and attention of some of the most emineat physicians, but derived no benefits whatever from their treatment. We feel that we can in me way better serve the cause of suffering numarity than to publicly bear our testimony to the permanent relief we have obtained from this rational plan of medication.

We can, with antire confidence, commend Dr. Pancost and his New System of Practice to all who desire a Spiggre, and Rabin at cure, knowing him to be not only a requirement, but one in whom the afflicted can rely with entire confidence. and extensive Wholesale Liquor Louse, No. 16: Front street.
